As of mid-September 1950 the 13 Army Group, which was stationed north of the Yalu River, had not crossed into Korea. Its headquarters was in Mukden. One army was guarding the railroad between Mukden and Antung. The remaining two armies were stationed along the boundaries on both sides of Antung. Artillery and armored units were stationed at Yayuan (鴨園) and Kuantion (124-46, 40-44).
